EIOPA CONFERENCE 2011

16 NOVEMBER 2011

CONGRESS CENTER MESSE FRANKFURT

FRANKFURT AM MAIN

INVITATION

Ladies and Gentlemen,

EIOPA has the pleasure to invite you to its 1st Annual Conference, which will be held on 16 November 2011 in Frankfurt am Main (Germany).

Building on the success of previous CEIOPS Conferences, EIOPA will be offering a platform for distinguished speakers and representatives to exchange views and for participants to acquire a fascinating insight into the future of supervision in the European insurance and occupational pensions sectors.

This year has been a decisive year for European Financial Supervision. The newly established European Supervisory Authorities, and in particular EIOPA, will contribute to a more consistent and convergent supervisory process, increasing financial stability and reinforcing the protection of citizens' interests.

This year's programme will include a keynote speech from Internal Market Commissioner Michel Barnier on «EU Insurance Regulation – Challenges and Opportunities». There will also be three stimulating panel sessions on:

- Solvency II, bringing views on how Solvency II will work in practice,
- Occupational Pensions, focusing on the Commission's planned revision of the IORP Directive, and
- Consumer Protection, assessing EIOPA's commitment to take a «leading role» in protecting policyholders, pension scheme members and their beneficiaries.

The wealth of expertise of this year's speakers and representatives will provide participants with in-depth analysis and high quality discussion, while the Conference will be an ideal networking opportunity in the dynamic setting of the FRANKFURT EURO FINANCE WEEK.

We very much look forward to welcoming you to our Conference.

Yours sincerely,

Gabriel Bernardino
Chairman, EIOPA
