Invitation

It is my honour to invite

It is my great pleasure to be hosting the second Luxembourg Financial Forum, as organised at the initiative of the Luxembourg Financial Industry Federation (PROFIL).

This year's forum aims at providing insight into the complex questions of regulatory frameworks for global finance, European pension systems in comparison, and the private pension market as complement to statutory pension systems.

The quality and depth of the speakers that we have gathered together for this forum are testament to the established and premier position, as well as the international stance that has always been taken by the Luxembourg financial centre. It has developed into a prime stage for an ongoing discussion on core financial and economic issues of international importance.

I look forward to welcoming you to the Luxembourg Financial Forum 2007.

Intensifying the promotion of the Luxembourg financial centre through structured and professional action - thus the declared goal of the Luxembourg Financial Industry Federation that has been set up under the name of PROFIL by the professional associations who play an active role in the financial centre.

The Federation brings together representatives of banks, insurance companies, investment funds, wealth managers, chartered accountants, auditors, domiciliation specialists, lawyers, stock exchange, and ancillary activities. It seeks to promote a coherent and clear image of Luxembourg as a prestigious international financial centre.

While continuing to give priority to the interests of their associations and institutions, the members of PROFIL combine their efforts to present the many facets of the Luxembourg financial centre which, through the far-sightedness of its political leaders and the innovative spirit of its operators, has acquired a prominent position worldwide.
